Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 10-36 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Applicant timely traversed the restriction requirement in Paper No. 4.

Applicant argued that the search and examination of an entire applicant could be made without serious burden and hence applicant's product and method claims are not distinct inventions and restriction is not proper. After review of Examiner Madsen's restriction, regrouping of the claims is required. The restriction should have been the division of Species I (Figure 1), Species II (Figure 2) and Species III (Figure 3). Because applicant has already elected the first set of claims that includes the wipes and two other substances within the container, the examiner will examine Figures 1 and 2 together at this time. But the examiner will reserve the right to further divide Figures 1 and 2 if applicant further defines the distinction between the two embodiments. Hence, claims 1-17, 19 and 33-34 will be examined together while claims 18, 20-32 and 35-36 have been withdrawn as non-elected embodiment.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the first and second compartment attached to each other by more than two common sides must be shown or the features canceled from claim 6. No new matter should be entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The specification is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, and 37 C.F.R.

1.71(a) and (b) as failing to provide an adequate written description of the invention, and failing to adequately teach how to make and/or use the invention. The specification does not disclose the first and second compartment attached to one another on more than two common sides.

Clarification is required and no matter is permitted.

4. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, for the reasons set forth in the objection to the specification.

5. Claims 6, 33-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The specification does not disclose the first and second compartment attached to one another on more than two common sides. In claim 33, the first occurrence of “the tearable seal” lacks proper antecedent basis. Also in claim 34, the tearable seal appears to be of the same seal as claim 33.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3728

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4,7-9, 11, 13, 19, 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kasianovitz et al. (US 5,616,337). Kasianovitz et al. discloses a package with two chambers. One chamber holds a liquid, while the other chamber holds a pad and powder or pad and liquid. A breakable seal 18 allows the mixture of the two contents after it is ruptured. The powder that dissolves in the liquid would produce a foaming reaction.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kasiznovitz et al. in view of Stupar et al. (US 5,353,927). Kasizonovitz et al. does not show more than one point of attachments. However, Stupar et al. suggests, for example, arrangement of compartments wherein the first and second compartments are connected at two locations for the mixing of the contents. Such an arrangement allows the compartments to be sealed tight to one another.

6. Claims 6, 10, 12-17, 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kasiznovitz et al. in view of Official Notice. Although Kasianovitz et al. only shows one common side of attachment, it would have been obvious to arrange the compartments in such manner to have multiple connecting points for the compartments to ensure the sealability of the sides. With respect to the different contents and reactions, it would have been obvious to provide the desired articles or agent within the respective compartments to produce the desired result.

With respect to the tearable seal, although the tearable seal shown in Kasainovitz et al. does not extend to the first compartment, it is conventionally known to provide tearable seal within the compartment to allow dispensing of that particular substance only.

Conclusion

7. Telephone inquiries regarding the status of applications or other general questions, by persons entitled to the information, should be directed to the group clerical personnel and not to the examiners. In as much as the official records and applications are located in the clerical section of the examining groups, the clerical personnel can readily provide status information without contacting the examiners, M.P.E.P. 203.08. The Group clerical receptionist number is (703) 308-1148 or the Tech Center 3700 Customer Service Center number is (703) 306-5648.

If in receiving this Office Action it is apparent to applicant that certain documents are missing, e.g., copies of references cited, form PTO-1449, form PTO-892, etc., requests for copies of such papers should be directed to Donna Monroe at (703) 308-2209.

For applicant's convenience, the Group Technological Center FAX number is (703) 872-9302 and for After Final Amendment the number is (703) 872-9303. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account.
